F. D. WILLIAMS, Observer.

Personal and Social.
Frank Long spent a few days in Daytona last week.
Chas. P. Hale is putting a big crop of excellent fruit on the market.
Chas. Barker is shipping his fruit crop which he estimates at something over 600 boxes.
The big Williams grove, beginning early last week, is sending out a car load of fine fruit each day.
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Pierpont of Savannah, spent nearly all of last week here on a visit to relatives and friends.
Rev. J. C. Dorward spent several days in St. Augustine last week attending the sessions of the Presbytery of Florida.
K. Borsen had a successful hunting trip last week to the western part of the county. He returned with some 20 quail.
Mrs. S. B. Shaw spent the greater part of last week in Jacksonville. During her absence Mrs. Kendall had charge of the store.
Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Benham are having their lot on South Prospect street cleared and will soon begin the erection of a small home.
The V. I. A. is again in full swing and you may soon expect the ladies to announce their program of entertainments for the winter.
There is unquestionably a large amount of old fashioned "booze" consumed in this place—that is to say, for a town supposed to be "dry."

W. A. Sturdy of Chertley, Mass., one of our regular winter visitors of many years standing, is again at Grove Hall, having arrived last week.
B. F. Tillinghast is clearing his lots of undergrowth and will enclose them with a neat fence. He expects within the next two years to build a winter home.
Mrs. L. A. Hurlbut returned from a visit of several months in Detroit, Mich., last week, and with her for the season is her sister, Mrs. Maybrow of Detroit.
Rev. Dr. J. K. Wight of Green Cove Springs visited his daughters, Mrs. W. C. Norton and Mrs. E. H. Williams, at Grove Hall last Thursday, Friday and Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pratt are due to arrive this week, having stopped over in Savannah a week or more on their way down from their home at Milton, Vt.
Fred Hubbard has been spending much of his time lately at his father's grove on Haw Creek, from which a very excellent crop of fancy bright oranges is being shipped.
The Lounds drug store has just placed some very handsome show cases of the "silent salesman" variety, but owing to a mistake in the making one of the cases, of circular design, had to be returned to the manufacturer.
Rev. Father P. Barry of Palatka was a visitor in town Monday and was accompanied by his sister, Miss Barry of Chicago. During his stay Father Barry celebrated mass and called upon many of his people and friends generally.
Miss Cora Norris of Wellsville, Ohio, is here on a ten days' visit with her mother, sister and brother. She is accompanied by a little niece. Miss Norris visited Crescent City some two years ago.
Capt. W. M. Ritch and daughter, Mrs. Ozer, and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Ozer and children of Port Chester, N. Y., arrived last week and are again comfortably settled for the season in Capt. Ritch's pleasant winter home on south Main street.
Herman Terry has successfully passed his examination before the U. S. Inspectors of steam vessels and is now a full-fledged marine engineer—and a good one. Herman is at present second engineer of the steamer "Pilot Boy" and under the tutelage of Chief-Engineer Lawless. Herman's friends are congratulating him.
Hon. Park Trammell of Lakeland, a prominent candidate for the United States Senate, is a son-in-law of Mr. T. C. Darby of this place. Mrs. Trammell is here on a visit and it is expected that Mr. Trammell will himself visit the town before long, in which event the News transmits than an effort will be made to get the distinguished gentleman to address the people.
The people of this place are grieved to learn that Dr. D. A. Dunshee's health is such that he will be compelled to give up his practice here and seek a change of climate. The doctor has announced his purpose of going to Arizona soon. Dr. and Mrs. Dunshee came here a little over a year ago for the purpose of making this their permanent home and Dr. Dunshee had succeeded in building up a good practice which was steadily increasing. He has also been wonderfully successful. His failing health and consequent determination to leave is a source of deep regret to all the people of the place.

Mrs. Cornelia Lyon and daughter, Miss Lyon, have gone from their summer home on Grosse Isle, Mich., to Detroit, where they will spend the winter. Their many friends here will regret to learn that they will not come here to open their winter home this season.
The annual election of officers of the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church occurred on the 13th inst. on which day the society was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Dorward. The following are the officers: President, Mrs. W. J. Norton; 1st vice president, Mrs. C. H. Cash; 2d vice president, Mrs. L. Eaton; secretary, Mrs. Fred Anderson; treasurer, Mrs. J. C. Dorward.
Capt. R. C. Ivory and family have closed their home and gone to Jacksonville, where they will spend the winter. Their going was occasioned by the recent marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Lynch, who will reside there, and their desire to be with her. Capt. and Mrs. Ivory formerly lived in Jacksonville, and they are going among a host of old friends. Their departure from Crescent City is greatly regretted by the people of the place, who entertain for them the greatest esteem.
Word was received here on Friday of the death of Mr. C. M. Phinney, which occurred in Jacksonville on the morning of the 21st. The body was taken to his former home in Massachusetts for interment. It was only last September that this paper announced the happy marriage of Mr. Phinney to Miss Emma Morse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Morse of Portland, Maine, who have long made their winter home in Crescent City. The news was especially saddening to the people of this place, who hold the bereaved bride in fond remembrance. And in this time of her deep affliction she has their tenderest sympathy.
L. A. Ballard, who has been seriously ill for some weeks at his old home in Burlington, Vt., is showing some improvement. Mrs. M. R. Traile of Chautauque, N. Y., writes to the News concerning his condition as follows: "I am in Burlington for a few weeks to see my cousin, Mr. L. A. Ballard. He has been very sick for many weeks, but at this time is holding his own and the doctor is much encouraged in a speedy recovery." Mr. Ballard has been interested in Crescent City for about 30 years and has a host of old friends here who will rejoice at the hope held out to them by these words of encouragement concerning his recovery.

Miss Norton's Musicales.
The piano pupils of Miss Helen Norton gave a recital in the parlors of Grove Hall on Friday evening of last week, to which the parents and friends of the pupils to the number of some 40 or 50 were invited. The following was the program of the evening:

There is no reason why your baby should be thin, and fretful during the night. Worms are the cause of thin, sickly babies. It is natural that a healthy baby should be fat and sleep well. If your baby does not retain his food, don't experiment with colic cures and other medicine, but try a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, and you will soon see your baby have color and laugh as it should. For sale by Ackerman-Stewart Drug Co.

ALWAYS WAS SICK.
When a man says he always was sick—troubled with a cough that lasted all winter—what would you think if he should say—he never was sick since used Ballard's Horchound Syrup. Such a man exists. Mr. J. C. Clark, Denver, Colorado, writes: "For years I was troubled with a severe cough that would last all winter. This cough left me in a miserable condition. I tried Ballard's Horchound Syrup and have not had a sick day since. That's what it did for me." Sold by Ackerman-Stewart Drug Co.

The Suave Mr. Perkins.
[Copyright.]
James Treadwell of Boston, being in London, dropped in at a sale of goods and chattels at a private house. A sandalwood box was put up which caught his fancy. He bid first against a ferret faced man and determined to have it. The people around him got on to the fact that he was a "Yankee" and made comments that further determined him. To the auctioneer's surprise, the bids went up to $10. Mr. Treadwell would have carried them to double that sum, but the other bidder rushed away to look for some one in the crowd, and being afraid of missing a good thing, the auctioneer knocked the trifle down to the last bidder, and it was handed to him and paid for amid giggles and open laughter. He had not gone two blocks from the house when a young woman overtook him. She explained that she had been lady's maid in the house for a number of years and coveted the box as a souvenir or her dear dead mistress. The ferret faced man had been bidding for her. Would Mr. Treadwell respect the sentiment that actuated her and let her have the box for what he paid? Mr. Treadwell declined to sell.
The hotel had scarcely been reached when a Charles Perkins desired an interview. Mr. Perkins was suave—exceedingly suave. He had been in America. He had seen Boston Common. Although he was one of the most patriotic of his majesty's subjects, he had gazed upon Bunker Hill monument and found his heart swelling with pride at the thought of how bravely it had been held against the redcoats.
When Mr. Perkins had got through praising Uncle Sam's country and children he turned to the subject in hand. It was his wife that had died, and his furniture that had been sold at auction. He was an architect and had met his downfall by trying to introduce American ideas into England, such as dark bedrooms, parlors in which two people had to sit with their knees touching and hot air furnaces that only produced hot air from the mouth of the manufacturer. That sandalwood box had been presented to his wife by Queen Victoria in person for making the best pumpkin pies in all England. There were other associations connected with it, and he had called in hopes that Mr. Treadwell could see his way clear to taking the sum of $15 for the sad relic.
Mr. Treadwell felt for the suave Mr. Perkins, but he couldn't part with the box. He was still mad at the people who had called him a Yankee and giggled over his bargain, and he had begun to smell a rat. So his tiny sandalwood box was worth $15 unless there was some secret connected with it—something by which he might profit and get even. He therefore turned Mr. Perkins down and took the box to his room and examined it. It seemed nothing more than a plain handkerchief box. There were no traces of the tears shed by the dead and gone. If the late Mrs. Perkins had ever broken it by throwing it at the head of her husband, it had been repaired again. Mr. Treadwell peeked and peered and found nothing. It was only when he came to measure that he suspected a secret drawer and at length found one. The contents consisted of a birth and a marriage certificate of the same person, and the death of that person had taken place fifteen years previously. As near as could be figured out, the papers were valuable to complete a record and establish a claim. The ferret faced man knew it, the young woman knew it, and the suave Mr. Perkins knew it. They were in cahoots to get possession, and not for one moment did Mr. Treadwell believe that any of them had a legal right to the documents.
He had read them over and over, and he sat pondering on the matter, when his bedroom door opened softly. He sat with his back to it, and the hour was almost evening. He heard nothing and had no premonition. The first he knew two hands gripped his throat and pulled him over backward on the floor. Then he looked up to find Mr. Perkins sitting on his chest and another man in the room.
"Don't kill the bloke!" whispered the other man. "The documents are right here under our noses, and we ought to be obliged to him."
Mr. Treadwell was not throttled to death. Mr. Perkins had evidently come prepared for such an event, but gave over grudgingly and slipped a gag into the mouth of his victim. Then he produced cords and trussed him up so speedily and securely as to almost excite admiration. When he had finished his work he shoved the body aside, took a glance at the papers and shook hands with his coadjutor. The latter may have been in the same architectural line of business. Mr. Treadwell had ordered up a bottle of wine, but had forgotten to open it. The two men now saved him the trouble. It was good wine, and they snatched their lips over it and complimented the American. Then they winked at him, twiddled their fingers from the ends of their noses, and walked softly out.
It was three long hours before a waiter looked in to see if the Yankee had jumped his bill and departed. Then Mr. Treadwell was untied and ungagged, a charge of sixpence extra placed against his name for being tied up and robbed, and when he went to the police and related the whole circumstance and asked that Mr. Perkins and the others be run down he was answered by the officer:
"Oh, go home and sleep it off! You are one of those buggy Americans who ought never to be allowed at large!"

Two of a Kind.
A well known clubman in New York likes nothing better than to hunt "big game" in British Columbia. During his last expedition to that region he was in camp with a friend from Minnesota. Toward morning, says the New Yorker, he awoke shivering with cold. The fire was very low. His companion was fast asleep.
It isn't nice to get out of a warm blanket to roll frosty logs to the fire, so the wily New Yorker gave his friend a kick and then pretended to be asleep. There was no response, and presently the man from New York tried another kick.
At this the westerner broke into a laugh. "I did the same thing to you twenty minutes ago," he explained, "and that's how you came to be awake."
Then of course both turned out to build a fire.

How I Cured Sweeney And Fistula.
"I WANT to tell you how I saved one of our horses that had a fistula. We had the horse doctor out and he said it was so bad that he did not think he could cure it, and he did not come again. Then we tried Sloan's Liniment and it cured it up nicely.
One day last spring I was plowing for a neighbor who had a horse with sweeney, and I told him about Sloan's Liniment and he had me get a bottle for him, and it cured his horse all right, and he goes off now like a colt.
"We had a horse that had sweeney awfully bad and we thought it was never going to be any good, but we used Sloan's Liniment and it cured it up nicely. I told another neighbor about it and he said it was the best Liniment he ever used.
"We are using Sloan's Sure Colic Cure and we think it is all right."

His Poetic Imagination.
"Doesn't the delay at the telephone annoy you?"
"No," said the slow spoken person. "I kind of like silence and solitude, and I never feel more alone than I do with the receiver at my ear and no sound save that of a low sad voice now and then in the dark distance that sighs, 'Waiting!'"—Washington Star.

Have One Doctor
No sense in running from one doctor to another. Select the best one, then stand by him. Do not delay, but consult him in time when you are sick. Ask his opinion of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for coughs and colds. Then use it or not, just as he says.

Ayer's
We publish our formulae for the benefit of the public. We urge you to consult your doctor.
Always keep a box of Ayer's Pills in the house. Just one pill at bedtime, now and then, will ward off many an attack of biliousness, indigestion, sick headache. How many years has your doctor known these pills? Ask him all about them.

Not Guilty.
Employer (to his clerk)—Is it true that when the clock strikes 6 you put down your pen and go, even if you are in the middle of a word? Clerk—Certainly not, sir. If it gets so near 6 as that I never begin the word at all.—Rire.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.
There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. It is called "Silent Killer." Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, heart failure or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy. It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often throughout the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Women's Pains—

"I was a total wreck," writes Mrs. Beulah Rowley, of Champoe, Oregon, "from pains I had suffered, for 4 years, every month. Sometimes I would be unconscious for 12 hours at a stretch. I did not know that anything could stop the pain entirely, but Wine of Cardui did. I advise all women suffering with painful periods to use Cardui and be relieved."
It does this by regulating the functions and toning up all the internal female organs to health. It is a pure, specific, reliable, female remedy, with a record of 70 years of success. It has benefited a million others. Why not you? Try it.

Timber Land, Act of June 3, 1878
—Notice for Publication.
United States Land Office,
Gainesville, Fla., September 20, 1907.
Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Oregon, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, William H. Revels, of McRae County, Ga., State of Florida, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement, No. 74, for the purchase of the w 1/2 of sec. 13, range 27, T. 12 N., R. 27 E., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before Clerk of the Circuit Court at Palatka, Fla., on Saturday the 26th day of November, 1907.
He names as witnesses: A. M. Padgett of Grandin, Fla.; K. E. Timmons of Grandin, Fla.; W. O. Huddy of Grandin, Fla.; E. R. Conway of Harlem, Fla.
Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 26th day of November, 1907.
HENRY S. CHUBB, Register.

Sheriff's Sale.
In Circuit Court, Eighth Judicial Circuit, and for Putnam County, Florida.
Hirsch Lumber Company, a Corporation, vs.
Wald Lumber Company, a Corporation.
By virtue of an execution issued out of said Circuit Court in above entitled cause bearing date First day of November, 1907, to me directed, I have viewed the following described property, being in Putnam County, Florida, to-wit:
One one mill and fixtures, consisting of three Belts, two Engines, Carriage, Pulleys, Saws, Belts, Etc., one Edger, one single machine, about 1200 feet of pipe in single machine, about 200 two hundred feet Iron Rail in dry kiln, two pairs truck wheels, one slot carrier chain and fixtures, etc., as the property of said Wald Lumber Company. I will sell the same at public auction at the front door of the Court House in said Putnam County, Florida, between the legal hours of sale on the
the same being the second day of said month, to the highest and best bidder for cash. And upon such sale being made, I will make, execute and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers a good and sufficient Bill of Sale to said property, purchaser or purchasers paying for same.
Done in Putnam County, Florida, this 6th day of November, A. D. 1907.
R. C. HOWELL,
Sheriff.
S. J. HILBURN,
Plaintiff's Attorney.

Executors' Notice.
Notice is hereby given that six months after date hereof, to-wit: On the 1st day of January, A. D. 1908, I, as executor of the last will and testament of J. D. China, deceased, will file my final account and vouchers as such executor in the office of the County Judge of Putnam County, Florida, and ask to be discharged from the further administration of the estate of said J. D. China.
ANTONIO URSINA, Executor.
